Petition for Modification of a 9-1-1

06-0242

Emergency Telephone Number System :

STAFF'S ANSWER TO THE PETITION

Now comes the Staff of the Illinois Commerce Commission (Staff) and in support of its Answer to Pulaski County's Petition for Modification of a 9-1-1 Emergency Telephone Number System, states the following:

1. The Pulaski County 9-1-1 System received an order to operate its Enhanced 9-1-1 System from the Commission on November 5, 1998, in Docket 98-0661.
2. On March 24, 2006, Pulaski County filed a Petition for Modification of a 9-1-1 Emergency Telephone Number System in which it requests to relocate its primary Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP) to the Pulaski County Sheriff's Office Communication Center located in Mound City, Illinois.
3. The primary PSAP for the Pulaski County has been located at the Illinois State Police (ISP) District #22 headquarters located in Ullin, Illinois. The ISP recently notified the Pulaski County 9-1-1 system of its intention to discontinue operating as a primary PSAP for Pulaski County.
4. The Pulaski County Sheriff's Office Communication Center PSAP meets all the requirements for a primary PSAP as prescribed in Section 725.505 of Illinois Administrative Code Part 725 – Standards of Service Applicable to 9-1-1 Emergency Systems.
5. Staff has thoroughly reviewed Pulaski County's Petition for Modification of a 9-1-1 Emergency Telephone Number System and supports the petitioners' request for modification. In addition, Staff supports waiving a hearing in this docket.

Respectfully Submitted,

Stacy Ross
9-1-1 Program Assistant
